The Basics of Black Magic Mind Control – Jason Christoff

Unfortunately in the video highlighted immediately below, many people who took the fake COVID vaccine are dying from heart attacks. We move past the mechanisms by which the heart attacks are being caused today and look at the black magic mind control used to hijack the human nervous system, in order to make people volunteer to inject themselves with poison. This list is not extensive, it just covers the basics of mind control.

1. Black magic mind control works exactly like white magic mind control. Mind control can make people rise up into their fullest potential or (in this case) it can trick people to hurt or even kill themselves. The same mechanisms are involved. The magic of psychological control never changes, it's the heart of the magician that makes the difference.

2. The vast majority of mind control is based on repetition. This is why each media station around the world repeated the exact same sales phrases because repeating one phrase or idea over and over again is proven to spell cast most efficiently into the human nervous system. Truth is a concept inside the mind that's based on group conformity, not fact or logical analysis. Injecting poison won't make anyone in the world healthier but it was indeed done en masse in 2021-2022 because of a human's need to blend in with the herd, in order to acquire increased safety within the bigger group.

3. The human nervous system is designed to seek safety in the bigger herd, even if the herd is only perceived to exist and not physically witnessed with our own two eyes. The TV manufactured the view of the majority by pretending the herd was already moving in one direction…when it wasn't. This perception is enough to get the herd moving in the desired direction of the con.

4. Our subconscious is the part of our brain complex that searches out and literally counts repetitive content in our environment and it does this without us knowing that it's happening. We couldn't stop it even if we tried. Similar to us having no control of our heart rate, our hair growing or a cut healing. Although we can't stop this counting of repetitive content and our need to fit in, we can bring the logical mind to bare on our decisions.

5. Our subconscious is obsessed with repetitive content because it assumes the most repetitive content reflects the beliefs, ideas and behaviors of the bigger herd. Again, if we blend in with the bigger herd, we can find safety in the numbers of the bigger group. Our subconscious is a safety seeking system…….not a logic or rational analysis system. Anyone who volunteered for the shot of poison, was a victim of this group conformity psychological manipulation. There was no COVID or even a vaccine. It was all fake….but there was indeed group pressure to comply.

6. Black magic mind control occurs when this system of psychological control is organized to drive negative repetitive content into the minds of the collective, therefore triggering self destructive or even fatal behavior…..which is exactly what we witnessed from 2021-2022. The same tactics are now being used to push a fake climate change agenda and a depopulation sexual castration agenda inside most government school systems.
